

2/30

Three other people. Ben talks about the chores of three roommates and his own. Observe how he designates the locations of the three people on an horizontal arc starting at his non-dominant side. Again, he orients his possessive adjectives and other signs accordingly.

first person Gloria designated on Ben's non-dominant side second person Cheryl designated in front of Ben third person Guy designated on Ben's dominant side refers to self

MINIDIALOGUES

The three minidialogues show how locations are designated and possessive adjectives are used when talking about non-present people and their things. Write your answers below.

Minidialogue 1

1. Describe the three dogs and indicate who their owners are.

	description	owner
(4)	dog #1 _____ _____	_____
(3)	dog #2 _____ _____	_____
(4)	dog #3 _____ _____	_____

Minidialogue 2

1. Tell about the two cars Norman and his ^{roommate} ~~partner~~ bought recently.

(4)

Norman's car:

(4)

^{roommates} ~~partner's~~ car:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Minidialogue 3

1. Write down the information given about each of the four cups discussed.

	whose cup?	how did they get the cup?
(3)	cup #1 _____	_____
(3)	cup #2 _____	_____
(3)	cup #3 _____	_____
(2)	cup #4 _____	_____

Answers are given in class.

Vocabulary Review

Vocabulary covered in this lesson is on pages 289–293.

DID YOU REALIZE?

A Deaf baseball player named William Ellsworth Hoy brought hand signals to the major leagues in the late 1800's. When Hoy was at bat he had his third base coach use the hand signals to tell him the pitching count. It caught on with umpires and fans and to this day the same signals are used to call balls and strikes.