

FIST LETTER NAMES

Circle the Name then Cross Out the Name

Tyrone fingerspells one name from each row. For the first round, circle the name spelled. For the second round, cross out the name spelled.

SUGGESTION: Look over the names below before watching.

- | | | | |
|----|-------|------|------|
| 1. | Tami | Tim | Tom |
| 2. | Nina | Tina | Ina |
| 3. | Tami | Sina | Sami |
| 4. | Mae | Moe | Mona |
| 5. | Naomi | Toni | Stan |
| 6. | Sean | Sina | Sam |
| 7. | Mimi | Tami | Mia |
| 8. | Ines | Ina | Ian |

Answers on page 399.

Write the Name

Write down the name Tyrone gives.

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 4. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 5. _____ |
| 3. _____ | 6. _____ |

Answers are given in class.

Now, practice fingerspelling the names above until you are comfortable.

DID YOU REALIZE?

The hands on the statue of Abraham Lincoln at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington DC appear to spell out the initials A and L. Legend has it that Daniel Chester French, the famed sculptor, was influenced by his earlier bronze sculpture found on the Gallaudet University campus of Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet teaching a Deaf girl whose hand is forming the letter of her first name, Alice.