

Grid Game

Ken will identify one of the squares in the following grid and tell you what is located there. Stop the videotape after each instruction, find the picture of what's in that square (see below), and write the letter corresponding to the picture in the correct location. Ken will first sign an example – see how it is marked in the grid. Remember to use the signer's perspective.

