

The Immigrants

On screen, Steve describes his family history, including the events that led one side of the family to immigrate to America. Use the diagram of his family tree below to help you follow the narrative.

After you understand the sequence of events, fill in the identity of each person described below.

1. Nationality is Italian. Went to South Africa on business and was never seen again.

Identity: _____

2. Born in North Carolina of German/Scottish ancestry. After World War II, he moved to California for work, and four years later got married.

Identity: _____

3. Grew up in California and married a man from Yugoslavia. Had three children.

Identity: _____

4. Lived in Yugoslavia, but when the country suffered economic depression and war, decided to move to America with her two kids. Ended up in California, where she met her second husband.

Identity: _____

Answers on p. 143.